

Three (3) V in Patient Identification

Verbalization

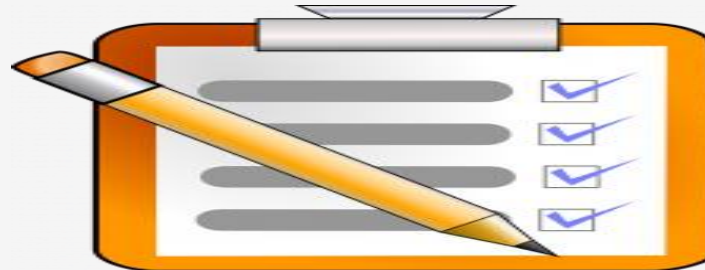

Expression in words the identification details of the patient or client

Visualization

The act of looking to the identification details of the patient

Verification

The act of matching or comparing patient identification details with any request form or document presented by the patient

